

The Newark Eagles have one of the greatest batting teams in baseball today with a team average of .304. In compiling this record the Eagles have banged out 610 hits that included 112 two baggers, 31 triples, 46 home runs and 376 runs batted in and the team has scored 402 runs in 58 games.

While depending a great deal upon their power at the plate the team has also employed base stealing as an effective offensive threat. The Eagles have stolen 58 bases to lead the league in this department.

Monty Irvin is leading the league at bat with the sensational average of .403. He leads in two base hits with 20 and has secured 83 hits to lead the league in this department and has also scored the most runs, 59.

Lennie Pearson while hitting the ball at a .322 clip is also the leading base runner in the league with 23 thefts. Pearson leads in runs batted in with 64 to his credit and has banged out 8 home runs.

Larry Doby is tied with Henry Kimbro of the Baltimore Elite Giants for 3 base hits with 9 each.

Johnny Davis is trailing Josh Gibson for home run honors with 9 round trippers while Gibson boasts of 10.

While the Eagles have shown tremendous power at the plate their defense has been of a superiority quality. The club has turned in 45 double killings to top the league in "D Ps.

The Newark Eagles have one of the greatest batting teams in baseball today with a team average of .304. In compiling this record the Eagles have banged out 610 hits that included 112 two baggers, 31 triples, 46 home runs and 376 runs batted in and the team has scored 402 runs in 58 games.

While depending a great deal upon their power at the plate the team has also employed base stealing as an effective offensive threat. The Eagles have stolen 53 bases to lead the league in this department.

Monty Irvin is leading the league at bat with the sensational average of .403. He leads in two base hits with 20 and has secured 83 hits to lead the league in this department and has also scored the most runs, 59.

Lennie Pearson while hitting the ball at a .322 clip is also the leading base runner in the league with 23 thefts. Pearson leads in runs batted in with 64 to his credit and has banged out 8 home runs.

Larry Doby is tied with Henry Kimbro of the Baltimore Elite Giants for 3 base hits with 9 each.

Johnny Davis is trailing Josh Gibson for home run honors with 9 round trippers while Gibson boasts of 10.

While the Eagles have shown tremendous power at the plate their defense has been of a superiority quality. The club has turned in 45 double killings to top the league in "D Ps.